

FRATERNITY & SORORITY LIFE RESIDENT ASSISTANT JOB DESCRIPTION

Fall 2021 - Spring 2022

Philosophy of the Fraternity and Sorority Life Resident Assistant Position

The Fraternity and Sorority Life (FSL) Resident Assistant (RA) is an undergraduate student responsible for developing relationships with and among residents, and helping promote individual and chapter growth and development through the Chapter Residential Facility. They also work closely with other Fraternity and Sorority Life staff members to develop and maintain an atmosphere that promotes community through excellence in academics, inclusion, and personal development opportunities for students. It is expected that FSL RAs will be interested in the welfare of students, advancement of chapters, and in the success of TCU. As an employee of Fraternity and Sorority Life, each RA will support the TCU and FSL mission statements and adhere to, administer, and enforce policies and procedures as outlined in the Code of Student Conduct/Student Handbook, FSL RA Code of Ethics, Campus Housing & Dining License, and Chapter Facility Agreement. RAs will also adhere to all TCU COVID-19 guidelines as outlined by the University and Fraternity and Sorority Life/Housing and Residence Life expectations.

Directed Goals and Expectations of the Fraternity and Sorority Life Resident Assistant Position

Appointment and Contract Period

- FSL RAs are employed for a 10-month period, beginning August 2021 and ending May 2022 and are expected to participate in all hall preparation including but not limited to all opening and closing procedures in their entirety.
- FSL RAs will attend and participate in staff meetings, on-call rotations, meetings with their Graduate Hall Directors (GHDs), regular staff trainings, development opportunities, and other events.
- FSL RAs will be an undergraduate student with at least at a sophomore standing and at least one full year of college experience.
- FSL RAs will be in good judicial standing with the University, Fraternity and Sorority Life, and Housing Residence Life.
- FSL RAs' student account will be in good standing. If a financial hold appears, the FSL RA will be contacted and given a deadline to resolve their account standing. Failure to resolve the hold may result in termination.
- FSL RAs will be in good standing (academic, financial, social, etc.) with their respective chapter.

Supervision

- FSL RAs will be on a community centered staff that serves multiple chapters and is overseen by two to three Graduate Hall Directors.
 - Graduate Hall Directors are graduate students who live in Worth Hills and provide support to on-campus residents. They serve as a guide, sharing their trained expertise with residents and student staff.
- FSL RAs will be employed in a hall based on individual staffing needs, and will receive consistent supervision through regular meetings and conversations from their Graduate Hall Directors.

Training Requirements

- Attendance at all trainings is required for employment. Dates are subject to change. Absences from training must be discussed with and approved by the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life prior to training.

- Spring 2022 Training: Wednesday, January 5 – Sunday, January 9, 2022 (tentative)
- Spring 2022 Closing and Move Out: RAs are expected to stay past graduation and be present for the entirety of building closing, date and time TBD

Compensation

- FSL RAs receive a designated single room in a chapter facility.
- FSL RAs receive an Ultimate Flex meal plan.
- FSL RAs will receive a monetary stipend for both fall and spring trainings.
- FSL RAs will receive a monetary stipend for cell phone usage each semester.
- The position is based on 15 hours of work a week. TCU policy is that students may work 25 hours a week, so the opportunity to work additional 10 hours (work study preferred) in another position on campus is available (please note International students may only work 5 extra hours due to federal law).

Academic Qualifications

- FSL RAs must have at least a 2.75 cumulative GPA and be in good academic standing at time of application and through their term of employment.
- First semester FSL RAs may not take more than 15 credit hours of academic coursework.
- All exceptions to the academic qualifications must be submitted in writing to the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life for approval.

Time Commitments and Outside Involvement

- To maintain balance in the FSL RA role and other involvement, time commitments exceeding 15 credit hours of coursework and 10 hours of extracurricular activities must be addressed with and approved by the supervising Graduate Hall Directors and the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life. An agreement between the FSL RA and GHD will be reached on reasonable hours prior to fall training.
- The position is based on 15 hours of work a week. TCU policy is that students may work 25 hours a week, so the opportunity to work additional 10 hours at each hall office (work study preferred) or another position on campus is available (please note International students may only work 5 extra hours due to federal law).
- FSL RAs will live in their assigned building and be regularly accessible to staff and residents throughout the year.
- FSL RAs will participate in weekly one-on-ones, regular staff meetings, and regularly scheduled All RA meetings.
- FSL RAs will work two weekly office hours within the office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
- FSL RAs will participate in the planning and execution of in-hall and community programs and serve on committees as needed.
- FSL RAs will participate in a duty rotation, including all University breaks and holidays, excluding Winter Break.
- FSL RAs may not hold the position of Chapter President during employment as a FSL RA. Extenuating circumstances may warrant an exception at the discretion of the Associate and Assistant Directors of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
- Any time away that is more 24 hours must be approved in advance by the Graduate Hall Directors. RAs are expected to be present on nights and weekends.
- The FSL RA will inform the Graduate Hall Directors when absent for any overnight period.

Studying Away & Applying for the Position of Chapter President

- FSL RAs who choose to study away or apply for the Chapter President position within their fraternity or sorority must let Fraternity and Sorority Life know at least two months in advance allowing enough time to coordinate staffing for the next semester or year.
- FSL RAs who choose to study away can be placed back into the applicant pool, but pending hiring needs, are not guaranteed to be selected for the position in the semester they return.

I have read and understand the terms of employment. As a staff member of Fraternity and Sorority Life, I have the responsibility to the students, chapters, the University and myself.
